MINISTRIES and TERRY L. HARPER,

ORDER

Case No. 2:12-cv-00023

United States District Court Judge David Nuffer

Magistrate Judge Dustin Pead

On November 22, 2013, Magistrate Judge Pead issued a Memorandum Decision & Order striking several of Defendant Terry L. Harper's (Mr. Harper) frivolous filings and requesting that the Receiver, R. Wayne Klein (the Receiver), file an Affidavit of Attorney Fees and Costs incurred (doc. 73).

Thereafter, on November 26, 2013, attorney Christopher M. Glauser submitted an affidavit detailing the attorney fees incurred by the Receiver in connection with filing the Motion To Strike (doc. 74). In his affidavit, Mr. Glauser avers that the attorney fees incurred amount to $1,143.75, constituting six (6) hours of attorney time. In support thereof, Mr. Glauser provides a redacted billing statement describing the time spent and work performed, along with the name, position and hourly rate of the individual who performed the work (doc. 74-1).

Upon review, the Court finds that both the hourly rate and the hours expended are reasonable in the context of the underlying Motion To Strike (doc. 69). Additionally, the Court notes that Mr. Glauser has appropriately redacted and omitted from his fee request any time associated with other issues in the case. Id. Accordingly, Mr. Harper is hereby ordered to pay the Receiver such amount within thirty (30) days from the date of this Order.

DATED the 18th day of December, 2013.

BY THE COURT:

Dustin B. Peach
U.S. Magistrate Judge
