INVESTOR QUESTIONNAIRE

US VENTURES AND WINSOME INVESTMENT TRUST

February 24, 2011

Instructions for Completing the Form

- 1. Additional pages, retain a copy of the complete answers. Please do not write on the backs of these pages. Keep a copy of the completed forms for your records.
- 2. How this information will be used Please note that the information communicated by you to the Receiver might be used in court filings. In such an event, personally-identifiable information, such as social security numbers and bank account numbers, will be redacted (deleted) from any court filing. The information you provide will be used by the Receiver in administering the Receivership effort, including the resolution of claims. Information likely will be shared with the court and with regulatory and law enforcement agencies. To reduce the expenses of the Receivership and to prevent misunderstandings, all communications to the Receiver should be in writing.
- 3. Third Parties The questionnaire asks for information about transactions with third parties. Many investors did not deal directly with Winsome or US Ventures, but gave their investment funds to another person or an entity. These other entities may have pooled the funds and sent them on to Winsome or US Ventures or acted as intermediaries to gather investments for Winsome or US Ventures. When the questionnaire asks about third parties, provide information about the entity to which you paid your money.
- 4. Accuracy of information The response must be signed under penalties of perjury. Please make sure the information is accurate.
- 5. Questions If you have questions about how to complete this form, consult with your own attorney or other adviser. You are encouraged to secure advice from legal and tax professionals regarding the tax treatment of this investment and how your individual situation will be affected by the Receivership.
