FACTS

The Ponzi Scheme

- 8. Since at least 1994 until the commencement of the SEC Civil Enforcement Case, NNU raised capital by soliciting investors to purchase promissory notes, which typically promised to pay interest at a rate of interest above market rates.
- 9. Upon information and belief, investors understood that they were investing in an enterprise that, among other things, bought and sold mortgage notes, underwrote and made loans, or bought and sold real estate assets through National Note, or one of many affiliated entities subject to the Receivership Order, all of which are referred to herein collectively as "NNU."
- 10. Typically, investment funds were deposited in a commingled bank account controlled by NNU. NNU would then transfer such investor funds to another bank account (the "Investor Account").
- 11. Monies on deposit in the Investor Account were commingled, and transfers to investors by NNU were made from the commingled funds on deposit in that Investor Account.
 - 12. At all times relevant hereto, NNU was insolvent.
- 13. At all times relevant hereto, there have been and are one or more creditors who have held and still hold matured or unmatured unsecured claims against National Note.

The Deed of Trust Transfer

- 14. Defendant was an NNU investor, having ten different investment accounts. A summary of the monies that Defendant paid to NNU and that he received from NNU is attached hereto as Exhibit A.
- 15. Defendant made his last investment with NNU by transferring $125,000.00 to NNU on or about July 15, 2011.⁴
- 16. On or about July 15, 2011, NNU executed an unsecured promissory note in favor of Spinola in the amount of $125,000.00 with a maturity date of August 15, 2011.
- 17. On or about August 15, 2011, NNU executed a second unsecured promissory note with Spinola in the principal amount of $125,000.00 with a maturity date of September 15, 2011, stating that it was intended to pay in full, by renewal, all former notes between NNU and Spinola. Spinola made no further cash investment at this time.⁵
- 18. NNU transferred a total of $3,750.00 to Defendant from the Investor Account between August 2011 and October 2011 on account of the $125,000.00 investment.⁶
- 19. On or about March 1, 2012, NNU executed a third promissory note with Spinola in the principal amount of $125,000.00 with a maturity date of May 1, 2012, indicating that it paid in full all prior notes between NNU and Spinola by renewal (the "Spinola Note"). Spinola made no further cash investment at this time.⁷
 - 20. Also on or about March 1, 2012, NNU executed a deed of trust (the "Spinola"

⁴ See Exh. A.

⁵ See Exh. A.

⁶ See Exh. A.

⁷ See Exh. A.

Deed of Trust") purporting to secure the Spinola Note with certain real property located in Kanab, Utah known as the "Kanab Cabin" (the "Deed of Trust Transfer").

- 21. On or about March 8, 2012, the Spinola Deed of Trust was recorded with the Kane County Recorder's Office.
- 22. Upon information and belief, Spinola did not provide National Note with any consideration in exchange for the Spinola Deed of Trust at that the time that the Spinola Deed of Trust was executed and recorded.

The SEC Civil Case and the Receiver's Appointment

- 23. On June 25, 2012, the SEC Civil Enforcement Case was filed, alleging that NNU is a Ponzi scheme, and seeking, among other things, orders (a) restraining and enjoining NNU and Palmer from continuing to violate federal securities laws, (b) freezing assets and prohibiting NNU from transferring, changing, wasting, dissipating, converting, concealing, or otherwise disposing of assets, (c) prohibiting NNU from destroying, mutilating, concealing, transferring, altering, or otherwise disposing of NNU's books and records, (d) imposing civil money penalties against NNU and Palmer, and (e) requiring the disgorgement by NNU and Palmer of all illgotten gains received by them pursuant to the scheme.
- 24. Also on June 25, 2012, as a result of the filing of the SEC Civil Enforcement Action, the Court entered a Temporary Restraining Order and Order to Show Cause against the defendants⁹ and the Receivership Order appointing the Receiver.¹⁰ Since that time, both
