

INVESTOR QUESTIONNAIRE
NATIONAL NOTE OF UTAH, LC

June 27, 2012

Dear investor:

Based on a lawsuit filed by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, a federal district judge in Utah has closed National Note and frozen its assets. I have been appointed by the Court as the Receiver. My duties are to oversee the closing and liquidation of the company and its assets in order to maximize the amount we can return to investors. The Receiver is not affiliated with National Note, Mr. Palmer, or any of his companies. The Receiver acts at the direction of the Court. More information about the Receivership can be found on a website we have established: <http://www.kleinutah.com/index.php/receiverships/national-note-of-utah-lc>

We are trying to learn more information about the operations of National Note of Utah and other companies affiliated with it. We ask that you complete this form to give us more information about you and your investment with any of these companies.

Sincerely, Wayne Klein, Receiver

Instructions for Completing the Form

1. Additional pages, retain a copy Attach additional sheets to this form if necessary to give complete answers. Please do not write on the backs of these pages. Keep a copy of the completed forms for your records.
2. How this information will be used Please note that the information communicated by you to the Receiver might be used in court filings. In such an event, personally-identifiable information, such as social security numbers and bank account numbers, will be redacted (deleted) from any court filing. The information you provide will be used by the Receiver in administering the Receivership effort, including the resolution of claims. Information likely will be shared with the court and with regulatory and law enforcement agencies. To reduce the expenses of the Receivership and to prevent misunderstandings, all communications to the Receiver should be in writing.
