The Honorable Bruce S. Jenkins

In accordance with the Order Appointing Receiver and Staying Litigation (the "Receivership Order"),¹ R. Wayne Klein, the Court-Appointed Receiver (the "Receiver") of National Note of Utah, LC ("National Note" or "NNU"), as well as certain subsidiaries and entities affiliated with National Note, and the assets of Wayne LaMar Palmer ("Palmer"), collectively, the "Receivership Entities" hereby submits this sixth interim "Fee Application," seeking approval by the Court of fees and expenses incurred by the Receiver, the Receiver's forensic accountants, Klein and Associates, PLLC ("Klein and Associates"), and the Receiver's legal counsel, Dorsey & Whitney LLP (“Dorsey”), for the period of July 1, 2015 through September 30, 2015 (the “Application Period”), and authorization to pay all authorized fees and expenses from unencumbered funds of the Receivership Estate. The Receiver and Klein and Associates are seeking approval of fees in the total amount of $51,867.50, and Dorsey is seeking approval of fees in the total amount of $66,431.00 and expense reimbursement in the amount of $8,760.30.

This Fee Application was provided to the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) for review, comment and objection prior to filing. The SEC has reviewed the Fee Application and the Receiver understands that there is no objection by the SEC to relief sought herein.

In support hereof, the Receiver states as follows.

I. BACKGROUND

1. On June 25, 2012, this case was commenced by the SEC against Defendants Palmer and National Note in this Court. The SEC alleges, among other things, that Defendants Palmer and National Note engaged in securities fraud and operated a scheme that took over $100 million from more than 600 investors.

2. The SEC filed several ex parte motions on June 25, 2012, all of which were granted by the Court. In particular, the Court entered the Receivership Order, appointing the Receiver and authorizing the Receiver to employ professionals to assist him with his duties.²

3. Upon his appointment, and in accordance with the Receivership Order, the Receiver employed the Dorsey as his legal counsel and Klein and Associates as his forensic accountants, and such retention was approved by the Court.³ Neither the Receiver nor any of his professionals have entered into an any agreement, written or oral, express or implied, with any person or entity concerning the amount of compensation paid or to be paid from the Receivership Estate, or any sharing thereof.

4. On December 9, 2013, the Court entered an Order approving the Receiver's first Interim Fee Application for Receiver and Receiver's Professionals for Services Rendered from June 25, 2012 Through December 31, 2012,⁴ allowing and authorizing payment of $320,914.50 to Klein & Associates, and $103,730.75 to Dorsey for fees and services rendered during the applicable period, and payment of $38,841.94 to Klein & Associates, and $1,599.82 to Dorsey for reimbursement of out of pocket expenses for the same period. These fees and costs have been paid by the Receiver as allowed pursuant to the Court's Order.

5. On July 9, 2014 the Court entered an Order approving the Receiver's Second Interim Fee Application for Receiver and Receiver's Professionals for Services Rendered from January 1, 2013 Through June 30, 2013,⁵ allowing and authorizing payment of $354,736.80 in fees for services to Klein & Associates, and $254,457.25 to Dorsey for fees for services rendered during the applicable period, and payment of $3,659.48 to Klein & Associates, and $12,089.48 to Dorsey for reimbursement of out of pocket expenses for the same period. These fees and costs have been paid by the Receiver as allowed pursuant to the Court's Order.

6. On December 4, 2014 the Court entered an Order approving the Receiver's Third

³ Docket No. 14 (Order Authorizing Receiver to Employ Professionals).

⁵ Docket No. 697.

The Order authorized the Receiver to pay all fees and expenses, except that 20% of all allowed fees were to be held back pending further order of the Court. These fees and costs (excepting the holdback amounts) have been paid by the Receiver as allowed pursuant to the Court's Order. The held back fees are being separately held by the Receiver.

7. On August 28, 2015 the Court entered an Order approving the Receiver's Fourth Interim Fee Application for Receiver and Receiver's Professionals for Services Rendered from January 1, 2014 Through December 31, 2014,⁷ allowing $351,829.00 in fees for services to Klein & Associates, and $431,164.50 to Dorsey for fees for services rendered during the applicable period, and payment of $30,149.94 to Dorsey for reimbursement of out of pocket expenses for the same period. The Order authorized the Receiver to pay all fees and expenses, and these amounts have been paid.

8. On November 12, 2015, the Court entered an Order approving the Receiver's Fifth Interim Fee Application for Receiver and Receiver's Professionals for Services Rendered from January 1, 2015 Through June 30, 2015,⁸ allowing $125,790.50 in fees for services to Klein & Associates, and $254,063.50 to Dorsey for fees for services rendered during the applicable period, and payment of $14,354.36 to Dorsey for reimbursement of out of pocket expenses for the same period. The Order authorized the Receiver to pay all fees and expenses, and these amounts have been paid.

9. During the present Application Period, the Receiver and his professionals have provided actual and necessary services for the benefit of the Receivership Estate which are set forth in greater detail below. The Receiver respectfully submits that the fees and expenses requested in the Fee Application are reasonable and should be approved.

10. As noted above, the Receiver submitted the Fee Application to the SEC for review, comment and objection prior to filing. The SEC has reviewed the Fee Application informed the Receiver that it has no objection to the fees and expenses requested herein.

¹⁶ Docket No. 710.

¹⁷ Docket No. 808.

¹⁸ Docket No. 889.

¹⁹ Docket No. 955.

²⁰ Docket No. 979.

²¹ Docket No. 1045.

A. General Litigation: Significant assets of the Receivership Estate include avoidance and loan collection claims against a variety of parties, as well as claims to invalidate “Assignments of Beneficial Interest” (“ABIs”) recorded against many of the Receivership Estate’s real properties. In June 2013, the Receiver commenced approximately 140 lawsuits (collectively, the “Ancillary Proceedings”) related to these claims. The Receiver also commenced a declaratory action against over 100 ABI holders in August 2014, seeking a judgment declaring the ABIs to be invalid and unenforceable (the “ABI Suit”). All efforts in liquidating these claims have focused on minimizing expense while maximizing the value of property for the Receivership Estate.

Since the filing of the Ancillary Proceedings and the ABI Suit, many defendants have reached out to the Receiver to attempt to resolve claims alleged outside of litigation, and in all such instances, the Receiver and his professionals then (a) received from the defendants any disputed facts and investigated those facts, (b) when appropriate, determined that there was no claim against the defendant based on the additional facts received, (c) when possible and appropriate negotiated the settlement of viable claims, including investigating claims of financial hardship based on the defendant’s hardship affidavit; and (d) in some instances, collected funds turned over based on demand, and also in filing motions to approve settlement agreements negotiated and drafted. During the Application Period, the Receiver filed two motions seeking Court approval of settlement agreements, which were approved by the Court,²² resulting in agreements in which defendants have agreed to pay a total of $397,379.28 to the Receivership Estate, releases of ABIs, and reduction of claims against the Estate. As of September 30, 2015, $236,805.83 of the settlement amounts have been paid.

Where there has been no indication of a potential settlement, the Receiver has actively litigated the Ancillary Proceedings and ABI Suit. Services rendered with regard to these matters are attributed to specific billing matters.

B. Disposition of Assets: The Receiver and his professionals attended to all aspects of disposing of personal and real property assets during the Application Period. Efforts in this regard are focused on minimizing expense while maximizing the value of the Receivership Estate. Thus, the Receiver generally first considers whether the property in question has value for the Receivership Estate by considering the fair market value of the property (typically obtained from the advice of relevant professionals), the existence of interests asserted against the property, the validity and/or avoidability of those interests, the costs of invalidating or avoiding any interests, and costs associated with marketing and sale, including in obtaining Court approval of a proposed sale. If it is determined that there is no equity in a property, the Receiver typically seeks authority to relinquish the property to avoid continued administrative costs. If there is equity in the property, the Receiver evaluates the timing of and the best method for marketing and selling the property so as to maximize its value for the benefit of the Receivership Estate.

During the Application Period the Receiver and his professionals have evaluated properties for sale, marketed properties, negotiated sales, obtained Court approval of purchase offers, attended to issues of conducting public sales (where applicable), and closed sales.

As of end of the Application Period, the following real property was sold or subject to contract:

- Closed Sales: (4) Three properties in Toquerville, Utah and 1 property in Byron, Minnesota closed, with total net proceeds of $167,092.18.
- Offers Preliminarily Accepted on Real Properties: (5) Offers accepted on five Toquerville, Utah properties. The sales are contingent on buyer due diligence. The Receiver will request approval of the sales if the buyers agree to purchase.

C. Asset Analysis and Recovery: The Receiver has spent considerable time during the Application Period analyzing assets of the Receivership Estate and taking appropriate action to recover the same. Services in this area have included recovering assets taken from the Receivership Estate, including executing on judgments and negotiating settlements of claims prior to the filing of any litigation.

D. Claims Process: During the Reporting Period, the Court approved commencement of the claims process and the procedures applicable to that process. The Receiver and his counsel revised claim form documents at the Court's request and obtained approval of the forms. As of September 30, 2015, 198 proofs of claim had been submitted. As of November 30, 2015, over 460 proof of claim have been submitted.

F. Administration of Receivership Estate: The Receiver and his professionals have incurred fees and expenses in administering the Receivership Estate, including at least the following: maintaining bank accounts and books and records of the Receivership Estate; receiving funds; making payments necessary to preserve assets; communicating with investors and others; obtaining a valuation of the ores held by NNU; and, when requested, providing information to relevant governmental authorities, including testifying as part of the trial against Palmer.

14. Through the actual and necessary work of the Receiver and his professionals, the Receiver has provided considerable benefit to the Receivership Estate.

III. BANK ACCOUNTS OF THE RECEIVERSHIP ESTATE

15. The Receivership Estate currently has two bank accounts, designated as an "Operating Account" and a "Real Estate Account". The Operating Account holds funds that are free and clear of any interests, and as of December 3, 2015, this Account had a balance in the total amount of $4,606,963.07. The Real Estate Account holds the net sale proceeds that have been obtained from the liquidation of real property against which liens or ABIs have been recorded and not yet released or found invalid, and as of December 3, 2015, this Account had a balance in the total amount of $1,085,472.22. Pursuant to the Court's Order Approving the Receiver's Third Interim Fee Application for Receiver and Receiver's Professionals for Services Rendered from July 1, 2013 Through December 31, 2013,²³ the Receiver has established a separate savings account tied to the Operating Account in which he is holding 20% of the approved professional fees incurred by him and his counsel. Money to open this account was transferred from the Operating Account. This account has a current balance of $122,843.56.

16. If the Court approves this Fee Application, the Receiver would pay the approved fees and expenses from the Operating Account. Given the amount requested, the Operating Account has sufficient funds to pay these fees and expenses.

²³ Docket No. 828.

IV. REQUEST FOR COURT APPROVAL OF FEES AND EXPENSES

The Receivership Order and Request

17. The Receivership Order provides, in relevant part, that:

59. The Receiver and Retained Personnel are entitled to reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement from the Receivership Estates as described in the “Billing Instructions for Receivers in Civil Actions Commenced by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission” (the “Billing Instructions”) agreed to by the Receiver. Such compensation shall require the prior approval of the Court.

60. Within forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar quarter, the Receiver and Retained Personnel shall apply to the Court for compensation and expense reimbursement from the Receivership Estate (the “Quarterly Fee Applications”). At least thirty (30) days prior to filing each Quarterly Fee Application with the Court, the Receiver will serve upon counsel for the Commission a complete copy of the proposed Application, together with all exhibits and relevant billing information in a format to be provided by Commission staff.

61. All Quarterly Fee Applications will be interim and will be subject to cost benefit and final reviews at the close of the receivership. . . .

62. Quarterly Fee Applications may be subject to a holdback in the amount of 20% of the amount of fees and expenses for each application filed with the Court. . . .²⁴

18. The Receiver now respectfully requests that the Court enter an Order approving on an interim basis and authorizing payment from the Receivership Estate of the reasonable compensation and expenses outlined herein for the Application Period of July 1, 2015 through September 30, 2015 in the amounts set forth below.

²⁴ Receivership Order ¶¶ 59-6.

Summary of Supporting Exhibits

19. This Fee Application is supported by the following documents:
- Exhibit A includes summaries of the fees incurred for each of the billing matters:
 - Exhibit A-1 contains a summary of the fees of the Receiver and Klein & Associates; and
 - Exhibit A-2 contains a summary of Dorsey's fees and expenses, with corresponding cross references to the relevant portion of Exhibit B-2 that contains more detailed time records.
 - Exhibit B includes detailed invoices setting for the contemporaneous time records of services performed by the Receiver and Dorsey:
 - Exhibit B-1 contains the Receiver and his firm's invoices;²⁵ and
 - Exhibit B-2 contains Dorsey's invoices for each matter opened with its contemptuous time records as follows:
 - Exhibit B2-A: Case Administration – time billed to this matter includes legal services rendered in assisting the Receiver with his administration of the Receivership Estate.
 - Exhibit B2-B: General Litigation – time billed to this matter includes (i) services rendered that benefited numerous Ancillary Proceedings (such as negotiation related to the clients represented by common counsel, communicating with insolvency expert, and tracking all Ancillary Proceedings); (iii) research on claims that benefits numerous of the Ancillary Proceedings; (iv) attending to service issues; (v) attending to motions for orders to show cause or to file lawsuits to collect on settlements or court orders; and (vi) strategy analysis.

- Exhibit B2-C: Asset Disposition – time billed to this matter includes all legal services rendered in relation to the disposition of property of the Receivership Estate, including advising the Receiver on issues related to the Receivership Estate’s interests in real property and marketing, preparing all necessary pleadings and notices necessary for private and public sales, preparing for and attending hearings on motions seeking approval of sale procedures and sales, and assisting the Receiver with issues related to the closing of sales and transfer of properties sold.
- Exhibit B2-D: Claims Administration/Plan of Distribution – time billed to this matter includes legal services rendered to assist the Receiver with the formulation of a claims process, claims administration and a plan of distribution.
- Exhibit B2-E: Asset Analysis and Recovery – time billed to this matter includes legal services rendered to assist the Receiver with the evaluation and, when appropriate, recovery of property of the Receivership Estate, including analysis of and commencement of the litigation claims and collection of judgments.

- Exhibit B2-F: Ancillary Proceedings – Dorsey has opened separate matters for each of the Ancillary Proceedings as well as the ABI Suit, and a summary of these matters is included in Exhibit A-2 with corresponding invoices for each matter attached in alphabetical order as Exhibit B2-F. The summary in Exhibit A-2 includes a cross reference to the relevant portion of Exhibit B2-F containing the related invoices. Each of these matters was opened after a complaint was filed and served and services specific to the proceeding were first rendered. Dorsey professionals have billed time to individual matter numbers for services specifically related to each of the Ancillary Proceedings that have been filed and separate invoices have been generated for each of these matters. In instances where a complaint was filed, but it was not served or the matter was dismissed or settled before it was served, a new matter was not opened, but rather time was billed to the General Litigation matter.
- Exhibit C includes detail of actual out of pocket expenses incurred by Dorsey:
 - Exhibit C-1 contains a summary of Dorsey's expenses.
 - All expenses for which reimbursement is sought are actual and necessary expenses that were incurred by Dorsey on behalf of the Receivership Estate. None of the expenses are billed at a premium, but rather are billed at Dorsey's actual cost.

Summary of Fees and Expenses and Voluntary Reductions

20. The fees and out-of-pocket expenses requested are summarized as follows:

	RECEIVER AND KLEIN AND ASSOCIATES	DORSEY
Fees	$53,192.50 ($1,325.00)-voluntary reduction $51,867.50	$75,693.50 ($9,262.50)-voluntary reduction $66,431.00
Expenses	$0.00	$8,760.30
TOTAL	$51,867.50	$75,191.30

21. The amounts requested include voluntary reductions made by the respective professionals in an exercise of their billing judgment. Reductions are summarized as follows:

A. The Receiver and the staff of Klein & Associates actually billed 338.80 hours during the Application Period, which does not include an additional 9.0 hours of time which are not being billed, amounting to $1,325.00 in fees in unbilled time. See Exhibit A-1. Thus, the total fee requested by the Receiver in the amount of $51,867.50 does not include $1,325.00, representing the value of unbilled time or $1,325.00 as an additional voluntary discount. The Receiver and Klein & Associates thus have made total voluntary reductions in the amount of $1,325.00.

B. In an exercise of its billing judgment, Dorsey has voluntarily reduced its actual billed fees in the total amount of $9,262.50. See Exhibit A-2. This reduction does not include the additional unbilled time of Ms. Hunt, which in many instances, has not been billed to oversee aspects of this case.

Miscellaneous Issues

22. The SEC has not requested a holdback of fees and expenses in this case. The Receiver respectfully submits that a further holdback of fees is not appropriate in this case because the Receiver and his professionals have voluntarily waived a significant amount of fees that were actually earned, a waiver has not been requested by the SEC, and the Receiver and his professionals already have deferred payment of significant amounts of their actual and necessary fees and expenses.

23. The Receiver and his professionals understand that the authorization and payment of fees and expenses is interim in nature. All fees and expenses allowed on an interim basis will be subject to final review at the close of the case and the discharge of the Receiver when the Receiver files a final accounting and final fee application.

24. The amounts paid to Klein and Associates, PLLC for the work of the Receiver and his staff are not the rates actually paid to the Receiver and his staff. The billed rates are higher than the amounts actually paid to the Receiver and his staff as the billed rates also cover operating expenses, overhead, non-billable work, and employee-related expenses.

25. In compliance with ¶ 60 of the Receivership Order, the Fee Application, including the invoices in Exhibit B and Exhibit C, were provided to the SEC and after review and comment, the SEC has no objection to the fees and expenses requested.

V. CONCLUSION

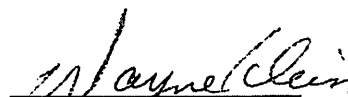

26. The Receiver respectfully submits this Fee Application and requests that the Court enter an Order approving the actual and necessary fees and expenses incurred on behalf of and for the benefit of the Receivership Estate. For all of the reasons stated, the Receiver submits that he and his professionals have provided a significant benefit to the Receivership Estate. During the Application Period alone, at least $167,092.18 in net real estate sale proceeds were obtained and settlements requiring the payment of $397,379.28 were entered into by the Receiver and approved by the Court. ABIs and deeds of trust with face values of hundreds of thousands of dollars have been released or held to be invalid.

27. There are sufficient funds in the Operating Account to pay the fees and expenses requested herein.²⁶

28. Thus, the Receiver respectfully requests that the Court enter an Order approving this Fee Application, allowing the fees and expenses requested herein, and authorizing the Receiver's payment of the same. The Receiver and Klein and Associates are seeking approval of fees in the total amount of $51,867.50, and Dorsey is seeking approval of fees in the total amount of $66,431.00 and expense reimbursement in the amount of $8,760.30.
