Wayne Klein, the Court-Appointed Receiver (the “Receiver”) of National Note of Utah, LC (“National Note” or “NNU”), as well as certain subsidiaries and entities affiliated with National Note, and the assets of Wayne LaMar Palmer (“Palmer”), collectively, the “Receivership Entities” hereby submits this Ninth Interim “Fee Application,” seeking approval by the Court of fees and expenses incurred by the Receiver, the Receiver’s forensic accountants, Klein and Associates, PLLC (“Klein and Associates”), and the Receiver’s legal counsel, Dorsey & Whitney LLP (“Dorsey”), for the period of July 1, 2016 through September 30, 2016 (the “Application Period”), and authorization to pay all authorized fees and expenses from unencumbered funds of the Receivership Estate. The Receiver and Klein and Associates are seeking approval of fees in the total amount of $24,565.00, and Dorsey is seeking approval of fees in the total amount of $47,076.50 and expense reimbursement in the amount of $1,025.42.

This Fee Application was provided to the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) for review, comment and objection prior to filing. The SEC has reviewed the Fee Application and the Receiver understands that there is no objection by the SEC to relief sought herein.

In support hereof, the Receiver states as follows.

I. BACKGROUND

1. On June 25, 2012, this case was commenced by the SEC against Defendants Palmer and National Note in this Court. 2016 through June 30, 2016;²⁷ and the Seventeenth Status Report for the period of July 1, 2016 through September 30, 2016 (the “Seventeenth Status Report”).²⁸ These Status Reports provide a comprehensive description of the services performed by the Receiver and his professionals and are incorporated herein by reference.

15. The efforts of the Receiver and his professionals giving rise to the fees and costs incurred during and requested for this Application Period are detailed in the Seventeenth Status Report, which is incorporated herein by reference.

16. In general, during the Application Period, the Receiver and his professionals primarily provided services related to the following:

A. Litigation: Significant assets of the Receivership Estate include avoidance and loan collection claims against a variety of parties, as well as claims to invalidate “Assignments of Beneficial Interest” (“ABIs”) recorded against many of the Receivership Estate’s real properties. In June 2013, the Receiver commenced approximately 140 lawsuits (collectively, the “Ancillary Proceedings”) related to the avoidance claims, and in August 2014, he also commenced a declaratory action against over 100 ABI holders, seeking a judgment declaring the 349 ABIs to be invalid and unenforceable (the “ABI Suit”). All efforts in liquidating these claims have focused on minimizing expense while maximizing the value of property for the Receivership Estate.

As of the end of the Application Period, as a result of the Receiver’s efforts, the Ancillary Proceedings and the ABI Suit have been advanced as follows. At the close of the last application period, seven of the 140 Ancillary Proceedings filed remained open. At the end of this Application Period, only two remained. One involves defendant Christy Palmer, who filed bankruptcy; and one involves an appeal of a judgment in favor of the Receiver in excess of $78,000.00. Additionally, out of the 349 ABIs asserted, only six remained during this period. The Receiver obtained a default judgment against the sole defendant in the ABI Suit who had not responded. As a result, the ABI Suit became ripe for entry of judgment based on the summary judgment papers that had been earlier submitted. Since, the Court has entered its Memorandum Order in the ABI Suit.²⁹

²⁷ Docket No. 1177.

²⁸ Docket No. 1216.

B. Disposition of Assets: The Receiver and his professionals attended to all aspects of disposing of personal and real property assets during the Application Period. Efforts in this regard are focused on minimizing expense while maximizing the value of the Receivership Estate. During the Application Period the Receiver and his professionals have evaluated properties for sale, marketed properties, negotiated sales, obtained Court approval of purchase offers, attended to issues of conducting public sales (where applicable), and closed sales.

As of end of the Application Period, the Receiver had drafted and filed a motion to sell certain property in Malad, Idaho known as the “Elkhorn Property”, closed the sale and filed appropriate notices of sale related to the same. The Receiver also requested authority to sell two Almond Heights lots, for which the Court requested additional information and the Receiver compiled. The Receiver also compiled and filed with the Court supplemental information related to the disposition of the property known as the ²⁹ ABI Suit Docket No. 525.

“Expressway Business Park” land. Finally, the Receiver closed the sale of the “Fairfield” property public sale and filed appropriate notices of sale related to the same

C. Claims Process and Proposed Plan of Distribution: A total of 467 Proofs of Claim were submitted to the Receiver, and as of the end of the Application Period, only a handful of disputed claims remained. The Receiver’s services in this area during the Application Period included engaging in discovery and settlement negotiations related to one disputed late-filed claim and filing papers related to the settlement of that claim; drafting a motion seeking approval of a proposed plan of distribution and filing the same; serving the motion seeking approval of a proposed plan of distribution and preparing substantive certificates of service related to the same; analysis of, response to and negotiation of a settlement related to a motion to allow a late-filed claim; and compiling responses to the motion seeking approval of a proposed plan of distribution, negotiating settlements of issues raised, and drafting and filing a Status Report on the same.

D. Administration of the Receivership Estate: The Receiver and his professionals have incurred fees and expenses in administering other aspects of the Receivership Estate, including at least the following: preparing and filing necessary reports with the Court; maintaining bank accounts and books and records of the Receivership Estate; receiving funds; making payments necessary to preserve assets; communicating with investors and others; responding to investor inquiries; and, when requested, providing information to relevant governmental authorities.

17. Through the actual and necessary work of the Receiver and his professionals, the Receiver has provided considerable benefit to the Receivership Estate.

III. BANK ACCOUNTS OF THE RECEIVERSHIP ESTATE

18. The Receivership Estate currently has two bank accounts, designated as an "Operating Account" and a "Real Estate Account". The Operating Account holds funds that are free and clear of any interests, and as of September 30, 2016, this Account had a balance in the total amount of $5,565,069.35. The Real Estate Account holds the net sale proceeds that have been obtained from the liquidation of real property against which liens or ABIs have been recorded and not yet released or found invalid, and as of September 30, 2016, this Account had a balance in the total amount of $961,353.21. Pursuant to the Court's Order Approving the Receiver's Third Interim Fee Application for Receiver and Receiver's Professionals for Services Rendered from July 1, 2013 Through December 31, 2013,³⁰ the Receiver has established a separate savings account tied to the Operating Account in which he is holding 20% of the approved professional fees incurred by him and his counsel. Money to open this account was transferred from the Operating Account. This account has a current balance of $122,894.73.

19. If the Court approves this Fee Application, the Receiver would pay the approved fees and expenses from the Operating Account. Given the amount requested, the Operating Account has sufficient funds to pay these fees and expenses.

IV. REQUEST FOR COURT APPROVAL OF FEES AND EXPENSES

The Receivership Order and Request

20. The Receivership Order provides, in relevant part, that:

59. The Receiver and Retained Personnel are entitled to reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement from the Receivership Estates as described in the "Billing Instructions for ³⁰ Docket No. 828.

Receivers in Civil Actions Commenced by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission” (the “Billing Instructions”) agreed to by the Receiver. Such compensation shall require the prior approval of the Court.

60. Within forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar quarter, the Receiver and Retained Personnel shall apply to the Court for compensation and expense reimbursement from the Receivership Estate (the “Quarterly Fee Applications”). At least thirty (30) days prior to filing each Quarterly Fee Application with the Court, the Receiver will serve upon counsel for the Commission a complete copy of the proposed Application, together with all exhibits and relevant billing information in a format to be provided by Commission staff.

61. All Quarterly Fee Applications will be interim and will be subject to cost benefit and final reviews at the close of the receivership. . . .

62. Quarterly Fee Applications may be subject to a holdback in the amount of 20% of the amount of fees and expenses for each application filed with the Court. . . .³¹

21. The Receiver now respectfully requests that the Court enter an Order approving on an interim basis and authorizing payment from the Receivership Estate of the reasonable compensation and expenses outlined herein for the Application Period of July 1, 2016 through September 30, 2016 in the amounts set forth below.

Summary of Supporting Exhibits

22. This Fee Application is supported by the following documents:

- Exhibit A includes summaries of the fees incurred for each of the billing matters:
 - Exhibit A-1 contains a summary of the fees of the Receiver and Klein & Associates; and ³¹ Receivership Order ¶¶ 59-6.

- Exhibit A-2 contains a summary of Dorsey's fees and expenses, with corresponding cross references to the relevant portion of Exhibit B-2 that contains more detailed time records.
- Exhibit B includes detailed invoices setting forth the contemporaneous time records of services performed by the Receiver and Dorsey:
 - Exhibit B-1 contains the Receiver and his firm's invoices; and
 - Exhibit B-2 contains Dorsey's invoices for each matter opened with its contemporaneous time records as follows:
 - Exhibit B2-A: Case Administration – time billed to this matter includes legal services rendered in assisting the Receiver with his administration of the Receivership Estate.
 - Exhibit B2-B: General Litigation - time billed to this matter includes: (i) services rendered that benefited numerous Ancillary Proceedings; (ii) research on claims that benefit numerous of the Ancillary Proceedings; (iii) attending to service issues; and (iv) issues related to judgment collection.
 - Exhibit B2-C: Asset Disposition – time billed to this matter includes all legal services rendered in relation to the disposition of property of the Receivership Estate, including advising the Receiver on issues related to the Receivership Estate's interests in real property and marketing, preparing all necessary pleadings and notices necessary for private and public sales, preparing for and attending hearings on motions seeking approval of sale procedures and sales, and assisting the Receiver with issues related to the closing of sales and transfer of properties sold.

- Exhibit B2-D: Claims Administration/Plan of Distribution – time billed to this matter includes legal services rendered to assist the Receiver with claims administration and a plan of distribution.
- Exhibit B2-E: Ancillary Proceedings – Dorsey has opened separate matters for each of the Ancillary Proceedings as well as the ABI Suit. A summary of these matters is included in Exhibit A-2 with corresponding invoices for each matter attached in alphabetical order as Exhibit B2-E. Each of these matters was opened after a complaint was filed and served and services specific to the proceeding were first rendered. Dorsey professionals have billed time to individual matter numbers for services specifically related to each of the Ancillary Proceedings that have been filed and separate invoices have been generated for each of these matters.
- Exhibit C includes detail of actual out of pocket expenses incurred by Dorsey. All expenses for which reimbursement is sought are actual and necessary expenses that were incurred by Dorsey on behalf of the Receivership Estate. None of the expenses are billed at a premium, but rather are billed at Dorsey's actual cost.

Summary of Fees and Expenses and Voluntary Reductions

23. The fees and out-of-pocket expenses requested are summarized as follows:

| | RECEIVER AND KLEIN AND ASSOCIATES | DORSEY |
|--------------|---|---|
| Fees | $ 27,405.00 ($ 2,840.00)-voluntary reduction $ 24,565.00 | $49,017.00 ($ 1,940.50)-voluntary reduction $47,076.50 |
| Expenses | $0.00 | $1,025.42 |
| TOTAL | $24,565.00 | $48,101.92 |

24. The amounts requested include voluntary reductions made by the respective professionals in an exercise of their billing judgment. Reductions are summarized as follows:

A. The Receiver and the staff of Klein & Associates actually billed 145.80 hours during the Application Period, which does not include an additional 18.4 hours of time which are not being billed, amounting to $2,840.00 in fees in unbilled time. See Exhibit A-1. The Receiver and Klein & Associates thus have made total voluntary reductions in the amount of $2,840.00.

B. In an exercise of its billing judgment, Dorsey has voluntarily reduced its actual billed fees in the total amount of $1,940.50. See Exhibit A-2. This reduction does not include the additional unbilled time of Ms. Hunt, which in many instances, has not been billed to oversee aspects of this case.

Miscellaneous Issues

25. The SEC has not requested a holdback of fees and expenses in this case. The Receiver respectfully submits that a further holdback of fees is not appropriate in this case because the Receiver and his professionals have voluntarily waived a significant amount of fees that were actually earned, a waiver has not been requested by the SEC, and the Receiver and his professionals already have deferred payment of significant amounts of their actual and necessary fees and expenses.

26. The Receiver and his professionals understand that the authorization and payment of fees and expenses is interim in nature. All fees and expenses allowed on an interim basis will be subject to final review at the close of the case and the discharge of the Receiver when the Receiver files a final accounting and final fee application.

27. The amounts paid to Klein and Associates, PLLC for the work of the Receiver and his staff are not the rates actually paid to the Receiver and his staff. The billed rates are higher than the amounts actually paid to the Receiver and his staff as the billed rates also cover operating expenses, overhead, non-billed work, and employee-related expenses.

28. In compliance with ¶ 60 of the Receivership Order, the Fee Application, including the invoices in Exhibit B and Exhibit C, were provided to the SEC and after review and comment, the SEC has no objection to the fees and expenses requested.

V. CONCLUSION

29. The Receiver respectfully submits this Fee Application and requests that the Court enter an Order approving the actual and necessary fees and expenses incurred on behalf of and for the benefit of the Receivership Estate. For all of the reasons stated, the Receiver submits that he and his professionals have provided a significant benefit to the Receivership Estate. The services rendered during the Application Period significantly advanced a conclusion of the litigation of the Ancillary Proceedings and the ABI Suit, and produced a proposed plan of distribution.

30. There are sufficient funds in the Operating Account to pay the fees and expenses requested herein.³²

31. Thus, the Receiver respectfully requests that the Court enter an Order approving this Fee Application, allowing the fees and expenses requested herein, and authorizing the Receiver's payment of the same. The Receiver and Klein and Associates are seeking approval of fees in the total amount of $24,565.00, and Dorsey is seeking approval of fees in the total amount of $47,076.50 and expense reimbursement in the amount of $1,025.42.
