3. Until otherwise ordered, Wayne Klein is appointed to serve without bond as receiver (the “Receiver”) for the estate of the Receivership Defendants and any subsidiaries or affiliated entities, and he has standing to prosecute claims under the Uniform Voidable Transactions Act.⁴

A. Asset freeze.

4. The asset freeze included in the Memorandum Decision (“Asset Freeze”) is hereby continued, which states:

Except as otherwise provided herein, all assets of the Receivership Defendants are frozen until further order of this Court (“Receivership Property”). Accordingly, all persons and entities with direct or indirect control over any Receivership Property, other than the Receiver, are hereby restrained and enjoined from directly or indirectly transferring, setting off, receiving, changing, selling, pledging, assigning, liquidating, or otherwise disposing of or withdrawing such Receivership Property. This freeze shall include, but not be limited to, Receivership Property that is on deposit with financial institutions such as banks, brokerage firms and mutual funds, shares of stock, and any patents or other intangible property.⁵

5. The Asset Freeze is extended to include the subsidiaries and affiliated entities of the Receivership Defendants for the purpose of permitting the Receiver to investigate the assets, property, property rights, and interests of the subsidiaries and affiliated entities (“Extended Asset Freeze”). The Receiver is authorized, directed, and empowered to investigate all subsidiaries and affiliated entities of the Receivership Defendants to determine whether the assets, property, property rights, or interests of the subsidiaries and affiliated entities derive from the abusive solar energy scheme at issue in this case⁶ or from an unrelated business activity. Once the Receiver completes his investigation of the subsidiaries and affiliated entities, he shall make a recommendation to this Court about whether the Receivership should extend to any of the investigated subsidiaries or affiliated entities or specific property of those entities. The subsidiaries and affiliated entities which the Receiver is directed to investigate include, but are not limited, to the entities listed in Paragraph 2 of this Order.

6. The Extended Asset Freeze shall be in force for a period of 120 days. Before the expiration of the Extended Asset Freeze in 120 days, the Receiver shall file his report and recommendation with this Court. The report and recommendation shall include the Receiver's recommendation as to whether the receivership should be extended to any of the investigated subsidiaries and affiliated entities or specific property of those entities. If the Receiver is unable to complete his investigation before the expiration of 120 days, the Receiver shall file a motion with this Court to extend the Extended Asset Freeze for the period of time needed to complete his recommendation. Nothing in the Receiver's report and recommendation shall prohibit or estop the Receiver from subsequently recovering assets, property, property interests, or rights from any subsidiary or affiliated entity by other means (e.g., a suit for a voidable transaction or fraudulent conveyance).

7. During the Extended Asset Freeze, the Receiver may communicate and consult with counsel for the United States regarding his investigation and may request counsel's opinion on whether the subsidiaries and affiliated entities or specific property of those entities should be included in the receivership estate.

8. The Asset Freeze extends to any subsidiaries or affiliated entities of the Receivership Defendants, their agents, servants, employees, attorneys, and those persons in active concert or participation with them who receive actual notice of this Order by personal service, facsimile service, or otherwise, and each of them shall hold and retain within their control and otherwise prevent any withdrawal, transfer, pledge, encumbrance, assignment, dissipation, concealment, or other disposal of assets, funds, or other properties (including money, real or personal property, securities, choses in action, or property of any kind whatsoever) of the Receivership Defendants. This applies to assets held by Receivership Defendants or under their control, at any time after inception of this action, whether such assets were or are held in the name of any Receivership Defendant or for their direct or indirect beneficial interest wherever situated. The Receivership Defendants shall direct each of the financial or brokerage institutions, debtors, and bailees, or any other person or entity holding such assets, funds, or other properties of any Receivership Defendant to hold or retain within their control and prohibit the withdrawal, removal, transfer, or other disposal of any such assets, funds, or other properties.

B. Termination of authority and removal of officers and directors.

9. The directors, officers, managers, employees, trustees, investment advisors, accountants, attorneys, and other agents of RaPower-3 LLC, IAS, and LTB1 LLC (collectively, the “Entity Receivership Defendants”)⁷ are hereby dismissed, and the powers of any general partners, directors, or managers are hereby suspended. Such persons shall have no authority with respect to the Entity Receivership Defendants' operations or assets, except to the extent as may hereafter be expressly granted by the Receiver.

⁷ If the Receiver determines after his investigation that the Receivership should be extended to include any of the subsidiaries or affiliated entities, and the Court agrees, then this provision (and all provisions involving the Entity Receivership Defendants) shall extend to the additional subsidiaries and affiliated entities that are subsequently made part of the receivership. This shall be deemed to occur on the date the Court agrees with the Receiver’s recommendation even if an amended order has not yet been issued.

10. No person holding or claiming any position of any sort with any of the Receivership Defendants shall possess any authority to act by or on behalf of any of the Receivership Defendants. Neither Johnson nor Shepard, nor anyone acting on their behalf, shall make any court filings or submissions to other government entities on behalf of the Entity Receivership Defendants other than in this case or in the pending appeal of an order in this case. Payment for any attorneys' fees, expenses, or other costs of such court filings or submissions shall be made from property that is not Receivership Property ("Non- Receivership Property"). Any filing or submission by any Receivership Defendant must contain a statement, made under penalty of perjury, identifying the source of the funds for the filing or submission in sufficient detail to show that the funds are not Receivership Property or otherwise derived from the solar energy scheme.

C. General powers and duties of Receiver; control over entities.

11. The Receiver shall have all powers, authorities, rights, and privileges heretofore possessed by the owners, members, shareholders, officers, directors, managers, and general and limited partners of the Entity Receivership Defendants under applicable state and federal law, by the governing charters, bylaws, articles, or agreements in addition to all powers and authority of a receiver at equity, and all powers conferred upon a receiver by the provisions of 28 U.S.C. §§ 754, 959, 1692, and Fed. R. Civ. P. 66, and this Court. The Receiver is authorized to sue and be sued as provided in 28 U.S.C. §§ 754, 959, 1692, and Fed. R. Civ. P. 66, and by this Court.

12. The Receiver shall assume and control the operation of the Entity Receivership Defendants and shall pursue and preserve all their claims.

13. Subject to specific provisions in this Order, the Receiver shall have the following general powers and duties:

a. To use reasonable efforts to determine the nature, location and value of all property interests of each of the Receivership Defendants, including Johnson and Shepard. These property interests include, but are not limited to: monies, accounts, trusts, funds, digital currencies, securities, credits, stocks, bonds, effects, goods, chattels, intangible property (including patents and other intellectual property), real property, lands, premises, leases, claims, rights, ownership interests in domestic or foreign entities, and other assets, together with rents, profits, dividends, receivables, interest, or other income attributable thereto, of whatever kind, that the Receivership Defendants own, possess, have a beneficial interest in, or control directly or indirectly (“Receivership Property”).

b. To take custody, control, and possession of all Receivership Property and records relevant thereto from the Receivership Defendants; to sue for and collect, recover, receive, and take into possession from third parties all Receivership Property and records relevant thereto.

c. To manage, control, operate, and maintain the Receivership Property and hold in his possession, custody, and control all Receivership Property, pending further order of this Court.

d. Except as otherwise provided in this Order, to use Receivership Property for the benefit of the receivership, making payments and disbursements and incurring expenses as may be necessary or advisable in the ordinary course of business in discharging his duties as Receiver.

e. To take any action which, prior to the entry of this Order, could have been taken by the officers, directors, partners, managers, members, shareholders, trustees, and agents of the Entity Receivership Defendants.

f. To engage and employ persons in his discretion to assist him in carrying out his duties and responsibilities hereunder, including, but not limited to, accountants, attorneys, forensic experts, securities traders, registered representatives, financial or business advisers, liquidating agents, real estate agents, brokers, traders, or auctioneers.

g. To take such action as necessary and appropriate for the preservation of Receivership Property or to prevent the dissipation or concealment of Receivership Property.

h. To open all mail directed to or received by or at the offices or post office boxes of the Receivership Defendants, and to inspect all mail opened prior to the entry of this Order, to determine whether items or information therein fall within the mandates of this Order; provided, however, that mail originating with counsel for Receivership Defendants may only be opened after a court order.

i. To assert, prosecute, and negotiate any claim under any insurance policy held by or issued on behalf of the Receivership Defendants or their officers, directors, agents, employees, or trustees, and to take any and all appropriate steps in connection with such policies.

j. To issue subpoenas and letters rogatory to compel testimony of persons or production of records, consistent with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedures and applicable Local Rules, except for the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26\(d\)\(1\), concerning any subject matter within the powers and duties granted by this Order.

k. To seek information from governments and entities outside the United States pursuant to mutual legal assistance treaties or other agreements to which the United States or an instrumentality of the United States is a party.

l. To bring legal actions based on law or equity in any state, federal, or foreign court as the Receiver deems necessary or appropriate in discharging his duties as Receiver. In determining which legal actions are likely to be cost effective, the Receiver may consult with counsel for the United States in making decisions on which actions to pursue.

m. To pursue, resist, defend, and settle all suits, actions, claims, and demands which may now be pending or which may be brought by or asserted against the receivership estate. In determining which suits, actions, claims and demands to pursue, resist, defend, or settle, the Receiver may consult with counsel for the United States in making decisions on such suits, actions, claims, and demands.

n. To assume all legal privileges, including attorney-client and accountant-client privileges, belonging to the Receivership Defendant entities, and determine in his discretion whether and when to assert or, on motion, to waive such privileges.

o. To compromise accounts receivable and other contractual claims of the Receivership Defendants and to abandon non-real-estate Receivership Property deemed by the Receiver to be of inconsequential value or benefit to the receivership estate on terms and in the manner the Receiver deems necessary or appropriate in the Receiver's business judgment.

p. To seek the assistance of the U.S. Marshals Service or from any other federal, state, county, or civil law enforcement offices or constables of any jurisdiction.

q. To alert the appropriate federal, state, local, or other law enforcement agency if the Receiver discovers a violation, or suspected violation, of federal, state, local, or other law in the course of his duties in administering the receivership, and to share such information and documents as may be necessary regarding the violation with that agency.

r. To take such other action as may be approved by this Court.

D. Receiver's control over assets, books, records, and accounts.

14. The Receivership Defendants, as well as their past and present officers, directors, agents, managers, servants, employees, attorneys, accountants, general and limited partners, trustees, and any persons acting for or on behalf of the Receivership Defendants, and any persons receiving notice of this Order by personal service, electronic transmission, or otherwise, are directed to preserve and turn over to the Receiver forthwith all paper and electronic information of, or relating to, the Receivership Property. The Receiver is authorized to request a modification of this provision or the previously issued Preservation Order.⁸

15. The Receiver is authorized to take immediate possession of all assets, bank accounts or other financial accounts, contents of safe deposit boxes, books, records, and all other documents or instruments—whether in paper or electronic form—relating to the Receivership Defendants; provided, however, that Receivership Defendants may retain copies at their own expense.

16. All persons and entities having control, custody, or possession of any Receivership Property or records of Receivership Defendants are hereby ordered to turn such

E. Access to and control over real and personal property.

18. The Receiver is authorized, as the Receiver deems necessary or appropriate in the Receiver's business judgment, to take immediate possession of all personal property of the Receivership Defendants, wherever located, including but not limited to: electronically-stored information, computers, laptops, hard drives, external storage drives, and any other such memory, media or electronic storage devices, books, papers, data processing records, evidence of indebtedness, bank records and accounts, savings records and accounts, brokerage records and accounts, certificates of deposit, stocks, bonds, debentures, and other securities and investments, contracts, mortgages, furniture, office supplies, solar thermal lenses, machinery and equipment, tools, fixtures, metal, plastic, and other building materials.

45. The Receiver shall file a notice of stay in any and all currently pending litigation (excluding this action) and in any and all actions that may be filed against Receivership Defendants while the receivership is ongoing.

46. The parties to any and all Ancillary Proceedings are enjoined from commencing or continuing any such legal proceeding, or from taking any action, in connection with any such proceeding, including, but not limited to, the issuance or employment of process.

47. All Ancillary Proceedings are stayed in their entirety, and all courts having any jurisdiction thereof are enjoined from taking or permitting any action until further order of this Court. Further, as to a cause of action accrued or accruing in favor of one or more of the Receivership Defendants against a third person or party, any applicable statute of limitation is tolled during the period in which the injunction against commencement of legal proceedings is in effect as to that cause of action.

48. Upon a determination by the Receiver that action should be taken in any of the Ancillary Proceedings, the Receiver shall seek a lift of stay of litigation from this Court prior to taking any action in the Ancillary Proceeding.

J. Notice to third parties.

49. The Receiver shall promptly give notice of his appointment to all known officers, directors, agents, employees, shareholders, creditors, debtors, managers, and general and limited partners of the Receivership Defendants as the Receiver deems necessary or advisable to effectuate the operation of the Receivership.

50. In furtherance of his responsibilities, the Receiver is authorized to communicate with and serve this Order upon any person, entity, or government office that he deems appropriate to inform of the status of this matter or the financial condition of the receivership estate. All government offices which maintain public files of securities interests in real and personal property shall, consistent with such office's applicable procedures, record this Order upon the request of the Receiver or counsel for the United States.

51. The Receiver is authorized to instruct the United States Postmaster to hold and reroute mail which is related, directly or indirectly, to the business, operations, or activities of any of the Receivership Defendants (the "Receiver's Mail"), including all mail addressed to, or for the benefit of, the Receivership Defendants. The Postmaster shall not comply with, and shall immediately report to the Receiver, any change of address or other instruction given by anyone other than the Receiver concerning the Receiver's Mail. The Receivership Defendants shall not open any of the Receiver's Mail and shall immediately turn over such mail, regardless of when received, to the Receiver. All personal mail of Johnson or Shepard, any mail appearing to contain privileged information, and any mail not falling within the mandate of the Receiver, shall be released to the named address by the Receiver. The foregoing instructions shall apply to any proprietor, whether individual or entity, of any private mail box, depository, business, service, or mail courier or delivery service hired, rented, or used by the Receivership Defendants. The Receivership Defendants shall not open a new mailbox or take any steps, or make any arrangements, to receive mail in contravention of this Order, whether through the U.S. mail, a private mail depository, or courier service.

K. Managing assets.

52. The Receiver shall establish one or more custodial accounts at a federally insured bank to receive and hold all cash equivalent Receivership Property (the “Receivership Funds”).

53. The Receiver’s deposit accounts shall identify the account as a receivership account by using a label on the account such as “Wayne Klein, Receiver for RaPower-3” or “Receivership Estate of RaPower-3.”

54. Except as otherwise provided in this Order and specifically as provided in Section L of this Order, the Receiver may, after consultation with counsel for the United States and without further order of this Court, transfer, compromise, sell, or otherwise dispose of any Receivership Property, other than real estate, in the ordinary course of business on terms and in the manner the Receiver deems most beneficial to the receivership estate and with due regard for the realization of the true and proper value of such Receivership Property.

55. Subject to Paragraph 56 of this Order, the Receiver is authorized to locate, list for sale or lease, engage a broker to sell or lease, cause the sale or lease, and take all necessary and reasonable actions to cause the sale or lease of all real property in the receivership estate, either at public or private sale, on terms and in the manner the Receiver deems most beneficial to the receivership estate and with due regard to the realization of the true and proper value or such real property.

56. Upon further order of this Court, in accordance with such procedures as may be required by this Court and additional authority, such as 28 U.S.C. §§ 2001 and 2002, the Receiver is authorized to sell and transfer clear title to all real property in the receivership estate.

57. The Receiver is authorized to take all actions to manage, maintain, and wind down business operations of the receivership estate, including making legally-required payments to the United States, creditors, employees, and agents of the receivership estate and communicating with vendors, investors, government and regulatory authorities, and others as appropriate.

58. The Receiver shall take all necessary steps to enable the Receivership Funds to obtain and maintain the status of a taxable “Settlement Fund,” within the meaning of Section 468B of the Internal Revenue Code and or the regulations, when applicable, whether proposed, temporary, or final, or pronouncements thereunder, including the filing of the elections and statements contemplated by those provisions. The Receiver shall be designated the administrator of the Settlement Fund, pursuant to Treas. Reg. § 1.468B-2\(k\)\(3\)\(i\), and shall satisfy the administrative requirements imposed by Treas. Reg. § 1.468B-2, including, but not limited to: (a) obtaining a taxpayer identification number; (b) timely filing applicable federal, state, and local tax returns and paying taxes reported thereon; and (c) satisfying any information, reporting, or withholding requirements imposed on distributions from the Settlement Fund. The Receiver shall cause the Settlement Fund to pay taxes in a manner consistent with treatment of the Settlement Fund as a “Qualified Settlement Fund.” The Receivership Defendants shall cooperate with the Receiver in fulfilling the Settlement Fund's obligations under Treas. Reg. § 1.468B-2.

L. Investigation and prosecution of claims.

59. Subject to the requirement that leave of this Court is required to commence or resume litigation, the Receiver is authorized, empowered, and directed to investigate, prosecute, defend, intervene in, or otherwise participate in, compromise, and adjust actions in any state, federal, or foreign court proceeding of any kind as may in his discretion, and after consultation with counsel for the United States, be advisable or proper to recover or conserve Receivership Property.

60. Subject to his obligation to expend receivership funds in a reasonable and cost-effective manner, the Receiver is authorized, empowered, and directed to investigate the manner in which the financial and business affairs of the Receivership Defendants were conducted and, after obtaining leave of this Court, to institute such actions and legal proceedings for the benefit, and on behalf, of the receivership estates as the Receiver deems necessary and appropriate. The Receiver may seek, among other legal and equitable relief, the imposition of constructive trusts, disgorgement of profits, asset turnover, avoidance of fraudulent transfers, rescission, restitution, collection of debts, and such other relief from this Court as may be necessary to enforce this Order. Where appropriate, the Receiver should provide prior notice to counsel for the United States before commencing investigations or actions.

61. The Receiver hereby holds, and is therefore empowered, on seven-days notice, to waive, all privileges, including the attorney-client privilege and accountant-client privilege, held by all Entity Receivership Defendants. The Receivership Defendants' motion opposing a waiver must be filed within that seven-day period.

62. The Receiver has a continuing duty to ensure there are no conflicts of interest between the Receiver, his Retained Personnel (as defined below), and the receivership estate.

M. Bankruptcy filing.

63. The Receiver may seek authorization from this Court to file voluntary petitions for relief under Title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) for the Receivership Defendants. If a Receivership Entity is placed in bankruptcy proceedings, the Receiver may become, and may be empowered to operate the receivership estate as, a debtor in possession. In such a situation, the Receiver shall have all the powers and duties as provided a debtor in possession under the Bankruptcy Code to the exclusion of any other person or entity.

64. The Stay of Litigation provisions, in Section I of this Order, bar any person or entity other than the Receiver from placing any of the Receivership Defendants in bankruptcy proceedings.

65. The Receiver is placed on notice that RaPower-3’s most recent bankruptcy filing (D. Utah Case No. 2:18-cv-00608-DN) was dismissed as a bad faith filing, and that RaPower-3 is barred from filing a bankruptcy petition for 180 days following the dismissal of the petition in that case.¹³ To the extent that the Receiver determines a bankruptcy petition is appropriate with respect to RaPower-3, the Receiver shall not file a bankruptcy petition for RaPower-3 until after 180 days of the dismissal of the prior bankruptcy proceeding or if the United States has no objection and the Receiver receives permission from this Court.

N. Administration of the receivership estate.

66. Until further order of this Court, the Receiver shall not be required to post bond or give undertaking of any type in connection with his fiduciary obligations in this matter.

¹³ See D. Utah Case No. 2:18-cv-00608-DN, Judgment in a Civil Case, doc. no. 11, filed September 4, 2018; id., Order Dismissing the Case, doc. no. 6, filed August 22, 2018.

67. The Receiver is authorized to solicit persons and entities (“Retained Personnel”) to assist him in carrying out the duties and responsibilities in this Order. The Receiver shall first obtain Court approval before retaining counsel and accountants for the receivership estate.

68. The Receiver and Retained Personnel, acting within the scope of such agency, are entitled to rely on all outstanding rules of law and orders of this Court and shall not be liable to anyone for their own good faith compliance with any order, rule, law, judgment, or decree. In no event shall the Receiver or Retained Personnel be liable to anyone for their good faith compliance with their duties and responsibilities as Receiver or Retained Personnel nor shall the Receiver or Retained Personnel be liable to anyone for actions taken or omitted by them except upon a finding by this Court that they acted or failed to act as a result of malfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence, or in reckless disregard of their duties.

69. Nothing contained in this Order, nor the grant or exercise of any powers provided for herein by the Receiver shall cause the Receiver to be considered a past or present owner, operator, or other potentially responsible or liable party under any provision of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (“CERCLA”),¹⁴ or the Georgia Hazardous Site Response Act (“HSRA”),¹⁵ or to incur liability based on ownership or operation of the Receivership Property under any other statutory, regulatory, common law, or strict liability theory. Furthermore, to the extent hazardous substances, wastes, or constituents are known or discovered to be present on Receivership Property, the Receiver shall not be considered to be in any direct or indirect contractual relationship with any party responsible for such substances, wastes, or constituents under CERCLA or HSRA, and shall instead be considered to be acting solely in a “fiduciary capacity” with respect to the Receivership Property in accordance with § 107(n) of CERCLA¹⁶ and § 12-8-92(7) of HSRA.¹⁷

70. At the request of counsel for the United States, the Receiver shall provide counsel for the United States with any documentation or information requested that is reasonably related to the United States’ duties in connection with this section of the receivership estate or that may be necessary to meet its reporting requirements or that is otherwise necessary to further the mission of the United States Department of Justice. The Receiver may cooperate with other government agencies investigating the conduct described in the United States’ complaint in this case and share information he has learned or documents recovered through his work as Receiver.

71. The Receiver need not obtain Court approval prior to the disbursement of receivership funds for expenses in the ordinary course of the administration and operation of the receivership estate. Further, prior court approval is not required for payments of applicable federal, state, or local taxes.

72. The Receiver and Retained Personnel are entitled to reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement which shall be paid from the receivership estate upon approval of a filed motion for the payment of fees and expenses. The parties shall have 14 days to file a response to any such motion.

73. Unless otherwise ordered, within 45 days after the end of each calendar quarter, the Receiver and Retained Personnel shall apply by motion to the Court for compensation and expense reimbursement from the receivership estate (the “Quarterly Fee Motions”). At least 30 days prior to the filing of each Quarterly Fee Motion with the Court, the Receiver shall serve upon counsel for the United States a complete copy of the proposed motion, together with all exhibits and relevant billing information.

¹⁷ GA. CODE § 12-8-92(7).

74. All Quarterly Fee Motions will be interim and will be subject to cost benefit and final review at the close of the receivership. At the close of the receivership, the Receiver shall file a final fee motion, describing in detail the costs and benefits associated with all litigation and other actions pursued by the Receiver during the course of the receivership.

75. Each Quarterly Fee Motion shall:

- a. Comply with the terms of any billing instructions agreed to by the Receiver.
- b. Include a certification by the applicant that the certifying professional has read the motion and that to the best of the applicant's knowledge, information, and belief formed after reasonable inquiry, the motion and all fees and expenses therein are true and accurate.
- c. Contain representations that: (i) the fees and expenses included therein were incurred in the best interests of the receivership estate; and (ii) the Receiver has not entered into any agreement, written or oral, express or implied, with any person or entity concerning the amount of compensation paid or to be paid from the receivership estate, or any sharing thereof.
- d. Attach all exhibits and relevant billing information.

76. This Court shall retain jurisdiction over any action filed against the Receiver or Retained Personnel based on acts or omissions committed in their representative capacities.

77. If the Receiver decides to resign, the Receiver shall first give written notice to the Court and counsel for the United States of his intention, and the resignation shall not be effective until the Court appoints a successor. The Receiver shall then follow such instructions as the Court may provide.

O. Living expenses for Johnson and Shepard; use of receivership assets.

78. Within 30 days of the entry of this Order, the Receiver shall investigate the monthly income and living expenses of Johnson and Shepard and make a recommendation to the Court regarding whether any monthly living expenses should be paid out of the Receivership Property to Johnson or Shepard. The Receiver shall take into account whether Johnson or Shepard have any Non-Receivership Property or access to any assets or property from sources other than the Receivership Property or from assets that the Receiver decides to abandon or otherwise dispose of in the course of the receivership. The Receiver shall not pay any monthly living expenses to Johnson or Shepard in any month where there is insufficient funds in the Receivership bank accounts to pay the living expenses or in any month where Johnson or Shepard is not in substantial, good faith compliance with orders of this Court.

79. Johnson or Shepard may make application to the Receiver to use Receivership Property. Such application should include an explanation of the reasons for the request. The Receiver may consult with counsel for the United States before deciding whether to grant or deny the application. If the Receiver grants the request, the Receiver may condition the granting of the request on a reduction in the amount of monthly living expenses to be paid to the Receivership Defendant and on a finding that the Receivership Defendant is in substantial, good faith compliance with orders of this Court.

80. If Johnson or Shepard disagree with a decision by the Receiver regarding applications to use Receivership Property or payment of monthly living expenses, they may file a motion with the Court requesting an order directing the Receiver to make payments or allow use of the Receivership Property.

81. No funds belonging to the receivership estate, other than the monthly living expenses, if any, paid to Johnson and Shepard, may be used to pay legal fees for any Receivership Defendant without approval of the Receiver or order of the Court.

82. The Receiver may, in his discretion, permit Johnson and Shepard to directly withdraw the monthly living expenses from a designated bank account and require Johnson and Shepard to account for the withdrawal on a monthly basis in a form determined by the Receiver.

P. Reports and recommendations.

83. The Receiver is authorized, empowered, and directed to develop a plan for the fair, reasonable, and efficient recovery and liquidation of all remaining, recovered, and recoverable Receivership Property.

84. Within 60 days from the entry of this Order, the Receiver shall file with the Court an accounting of the receivership estate reflecting (to the best of the Receiver's knowledge) the existence, value, and location of all Receivership Property, and of the extent of liabilities, both those claimed to exist by others and those the Receiver believes to be legal obligations of the receivership estate (the "Initial Accounting"). The Receiver shall also detail his efforts in locating Receivership Property and what, if any, additional efforts need to be undertaken to provide a full accounting of the receivership estate to this Court.

85. As part of the Initial Accounting, the Receiver is directed to investigate the publicly-traded status of IAS and provide a recommendation to the Court on whether IAS should remain a publicly traded company or should otherwise be liquidated and dissolved. The Receiver's Initial Accounting should describe in detail his findings and recommendations and include the following:

- a. A summary of IAS's reporting and disclosures obligations, whether by the SEC or any other federal, state, or local regulatory agency, and whether IAS is current in those obligations.
- b. An estimate of how long it will take the Receiver to conduct an investigation, gather the necessary information, and file any reports or other information required by the reporting and disclosure obligations referenced in Paragraph 85(a) of this Order.
- c. A summary of the trading of IAS stock from the initiation of this lawsuit on November 23, 2015, specifically outlining the trading conducted by Johnson, Shepard, their family members, and other insiders.
- d. A summary of the shares of stock currently owned by Johnson, Shepard, and their family members, whether directly or indirectly, including through spouses and the subsidiary and affiliated entities described in Paragraph 2 of this Order.
- e. A determination by the Receiver as to whether trading of IAS stock should be suspended. The Receiver is authorized to request the appropriate entity to suspend the trading of IAS stock prior to filing the Initial Accounting, and if the Receiver does so, the Receiver shall include the details of that request in the Initial Accounting.
- f. The Receiver's plan for the future of IAS, which may include continuing any operations of the business unrelated to the solar energy scheme or liquidating the business. If the Receiver determines that there are no operations unrelated to the solar energy scheme, then the Receiver shall propose a liquidation plan rather than sell the shell entity and its “public company” status.

86. Within a reasonable time after the end of each calendar quarter, but no later than 30 days after the end of each calendar quarter, the Receiver shall file a “Quarterly Status Report.” The Quarterly Status Report shall, for the prior calendar quarter: (a) describe significant developments in the receivership estate during the quarter; (b) describe in summary form the assets recovered and disposed of during the quarter; (c) describe the status of litigation initiated, settled, or in progress during the quarter; (d) summarize receipts and disbursements during the quarter and the general financial operations and status of the receivership estate; (e) describe the extent to which the Receivership Defendants, or others subject to the requirements of this Order, have failed to cooperate with or comply with demands from the Receiver; and (f) describe the Receiver’s plans for moving forward to accomplish the objectives of the receivership.

87. At the close of the receivership, the Receiver shall submit a final accounting in connection with a motion to close the receivership estate as well as the Receiver’s final application for compensation and expense reimbursement.

Q. Claims process and distributions.

88. If it appears to the Receiver that proceeds from liquidation of the receivership estate will exceed the costs of administering the receivership estate and the amount necessary to satisfy the obligation to the United States, the Receiver may propose to the Court a claims process to be administered by the Receiver. The United States shall not be required to submit a claim as part of any claims process proposed to the Court.

89. After payment of allowed costs of administering the receivership estate, the Receiver shall distribute proceeds from the liquidation of the receivership estate as follows:

a. FIRST PRIORITY: The United States Department of Justice, for its costs that will be awarded under 28 U.S.C. § 1920 and any other costs this Court may award.

This payment shall be paid in full before any distributions to lower priority claims.

b. SECOND PRIORITY: To the United States, in the amount of $14,207,517.

This payment shall be made in full before any distributions to lower priority claims.

c. THIRD PRIORITY:

i. To a Receivership Defendants' customer who files a claim with the Receiver with sufficient evidence to show:

1. The customer's investment or payments to Receivership Defendants for "solar lenses," "alternative energy systems," or other products sold by Receivership Defendants;

2. All payments or credits from Receivership Defendants to the customer, including rental payments, bonus payments, salaries, distributions, commissions, and overrides or similar payments due to multilevel marketing;

3. A copy of any filed tax return on which the customer claimed a tax deduction or tax credit relating to Receivership Defendants' "solar lenses" or "alternative energy systems"; and

4. The resolution of all the customer's issues with the Internal Revenue Service regarding any tax deduction or tax credit relating to or arising from "solar lenses" or "alternative energy systems" or other products purchased from Receivership Defendants. (If a customer does not have an outstanding assessment for taxes, interest, or penalties relating to Receivership Defendants' "solar lenses" or "alternative energy systems," or has not been required to pay back taxes, interest, or penalties because the tax deduction or tax credits relating to Receivership Defendants' "solar lenses" or "alternative energy systems" have not been audited or disallowed by the Internal Revenue Service, then the customer shall not be entitled to compensation as a "Third Priority" claimant. If a customer has not yet resolved any outstanding tax issues relating to Receivership Defendants' "solar lenses" or "alternative energy systems" with the Internal Revenue Service, then the customer can file a claim with the Receiver and request assistance in resolving its outstanding tax issues. For any customer that requests assistance, the Receiver shall forward a copy of all documents submitted by the customer to a designated representative of the Internal Revenue Service with a copy to counsel for the United States. If the customer can resolve its issues with the Internal Revenue Service prior to the date the Receiver distributes any assets or monies to the Third Priority claimants, the customer shall be deemed a Third Priority claimant and may be entitled to payments under this subsection.)

ii. The Receiver is authorized to set a deadline for claims to be filed, but that deadline shall be no later than nine months after the entry of this Order and the appointment of the Receiver. The Receiver is authorized to request additional information from any customer or deem a customer's submission to be insufficient for the purpose of determining whether the customer is a Third Priority claimant and entitled to payment under this subsection. Before any funds to customers determined to be Third Priority claimants are paid, the Receiver shall file a report with the Court showing the list of customers who filed claims with the Receiver, the Receiver's determination as to whether those customers qualify as Third Priority claimants, and the proposed amount to be paid to each customer. The parties shall have 14 days to respond or object to the payments the Receiver intends to make. Payments to claimants shall be made on a pro rata basis of the amount paid by the claimant to Receivership Defendants less all amounts received by the claimant from Receivership Defendants.

d. FOURTH PRIORITY: To the extent that there are any remaining assets or funds in the receivership estate that can be liquidated or distributed, the remainder shall be paid to the United States until or unless the total payments to First, Second, Third, and Fourth Priority claimants reaches $50,025,480.

e. FIFTH PRIORITY: The Receiver is authorized to solicit claims from other persons who may be owed money by any Receivership Defendant, including any customers who do not otherwise qualify as Third Priority claimants. To the extent that there are any remaining assets or funds in the receivership estate that can be liquidated or distributed after the payment of expenses of administering the receivership estate and the First through Fourth Priority claimants, the Receiver has discretion to determine which, if any, additional claims should be paid from the remainder. The Receiver is authorized to solicit claims from noncustomers, including utility providers, suppliers, contractors, service providers, and other similar persons and entities within the same nine months that it solicits claims from customers. As part of the recommendation the Receiver makes to the Court with respect to the Third Priority claimants, the Receiver shall also provide a recommendation to the Court as to whether any claims solicited from what are considered Fifth Priority claimants should be paid prior to the Third and Fourth Priority claimants. The Receiver shall include in its recommendation the name of such Fifth Priority claimants, the relationship of each such claimant to the Receivership Defendants, and a brief explanation as to why its claim should be paid before the Third and Fourth Priority claimants. As described in Paragraph 89(c) of this Order, the parties shall have 14 days to respond or object to the Receiver's recommendation.

f. RESIDUAL RECEIVERSHIP ESTATE: To the extent that there are any remaining assets or funds in the receivership estate that can be liquidated or distributed after the payment of expenses of administering the receivership estate and the First through Fifth Priority claimants, the residual shall revert to Receivership Defendants.

90. The Receiver may coordinate and share information with counsel for the United States and the Internal Revenue Service in evaluating claims submitted and making recommendations to the Court on the allowance and payment of claims.

91. The Receiver is authorized to make distributions of available funds in the receivership estate to the United States of up to $14,207,517 without further order of this Court. The distributions need not be made in one lump sum payment but may be made over time as assets and funds become available for payment.

R. Miscellaneous provisions.

92. At the request of the Receiver, the Clerk of the Court is directed to provide certified copies of this Order or other orders of this Court to the Receiver at no cost to the Receiver.

93. If any persons subject to this Order fail to comply with the terms herein, the Receiver or counsel for the United States is permitted to initiate contempt proceedings.

94. The Receiver and his Retained Personnel shall keep time records to support their fee applications. Time records must set forth in reasonable detail an appropriate narrative description of the services rendered along with the time spent on those services. The time records should be kept in a manner that enables the Receiver and his Retained Personnel to track time spent on specific litigation matters or other tasks related to the administering of the Receivership.

95. The Receiver shall retain all records relating to the Receivership for a period of not less than three years after the Receivership has been closed. The Receiver shall provide copies of any records, information, or documents to counsel for the United States if necessary for counsel's record-keeping obligations or other statutory and regulatory responsibilities and duties.

96. The Receiver is authorized to request a modification of this Order from this Court during the life of the receivership if the Receiver determines that a modification is necessary for the proper administration of the receivership estate.
