IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

WAYNE LEMAR PALMER,

Defendant.

MOTION TO EXTEND SELF-SURRENDER DATE

Case No. 2:15-cr-00469 CW

The defendant, Wayne Lemar Palmer, by and through counsel of record, Robert K. Hunt, hereby moves the Court to extend the self-surrender date for approximately 90 days. In support of this motion, Mr. Palmer represents the following:

1. On October 9, 2018, Mr. Palmer was sentenced to Bureau of Prisons custody for 60 months. The Court allowed Mr. Palmer to self-surrender and ordered him to report to the designated facility by noon on January 17, 2019.

2. Mr. Palmer seeks a 90 day continuance of his self-surrender date.

3. On November 17, 2018, Mr. Palmer was in a vehicle accident on 8900 South Redwood Road, West Jordan, Utah, when a vehicle crossed two lanes of traffic and hit Mr. Palmer's vehicle broadside.

4. Mr. Palmer suffered, among other injuries, an acute fracture of the C-6 vertebrae, severe lacerations above and around his right eye, numerous displaced ribs, damage to his right hip socket and damage to various nerve canals resulting in numbness to his arms and hands.

5. Mr. Palmer has had various surgeries and is undergoing tests and procedures to determine the extent of the numbness to his arms and hands. He is also receiving ongoing physical therapy for the pain in his hip.

6. Mr. Palmer's physicians have scheduled appointments and procedures through March 10, 2019. According to Mr. Palmer's physicians, the estimated date that Mr. Palmer could leave their active care is 90 days, with an evaluation to follow.

Based on the foregoing, Mr. Palmer moves this Court to extend the date on which he must report to the Federal Bureau of Prisons facility to April 17, 2019.

DATED this 7th day of January, 2019.
